THE MILES BLUES BAND

ABOUT MIKE MILES & THE MILES BLUES BAND

Mike Miles is a guitarist, singer, songwriter, and entertainer with more than 50 years of performing experience. Throughout his career, he has performed extensively in Nashville, earned a recording contract, and achieved a Top 10 charting release in Europe.

For more than five decades, Mike has built a reputation for professionalism, musicianship, and delivering performances that keep audiences engaged while earning repeat invitations from venues and event organizers.

Mike has performed with members of the New York Dolls and Elephant's Memory, and has fronted several successful bands, including Shades of Blue and Let the Good Times Roll.

Today, Mike fronts The Miles Blues Band, delivering professional, high-energy performances featuring a dynamic blend of classic blues, blues-rock, classic rock, and original music. Known for expressive guitar playing, strong vocals, and an engaging stage presence, the band creates memorable performances that connect with audiences from the first song to the last.

The Miles Blues Band delivers reliable, professional entertainment that helps make every event memorable.
