ABOUT MIKE MILES

Mike Miles is a guitarist, singer, songwriter, and entertainer with more than 50 years of performing experience. Throughout his career, he has performed extensively in Nashville, earned a recording contract, and achieved a Top 10 charting release in Europe.

For more than five decades, Mike has built a reputation for professionalism, musicianship, and delivering performances that keep audiences engaged while earning repeat invitations from venues and event organizers.

Mike has performed with members of the New York Dolls and Elephant's Memory and has fronted several successful bands, including Shades of Blue and Let the Good Times Roll.

As a solo artist, Mike performs a dynamic blend of classic rock, blues, country, and original music. Known for expressive guitar playing, strong vocals, and an engaging stage presence, he creates a versatile live show that connects with audiences from the first song to the last.

Mike also fronts The Miles Blues Band, performing classic blues, blues-rock, classic rock, and original music.
